GREAT SYNAGOGUE OF IASI

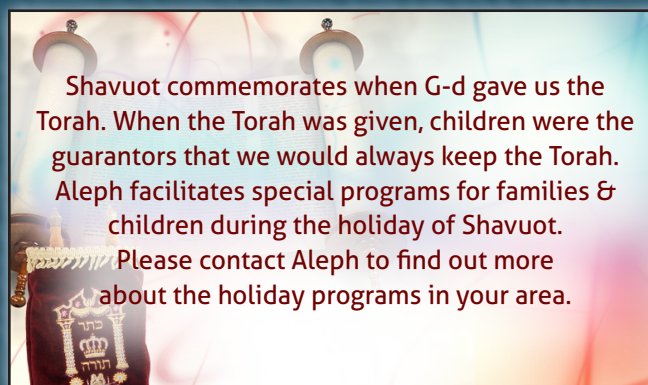

Iasi, Romania

Great Synagogue (Iași) is the oldest surviving synagogue in Romania, built between 1657 and 1682. It is an Ashkenazi synagogue in mannerist-early Baroque style, with a brick and stone structure and a fresco decorated interior. It was a center of Jewish life and culture in Iași until the Holocaust, when most of the Jews were killed in the Iași pogrom. The synagogue was restored in 1977 and 2015, and is listed on the National Register of Historic Monuments. It still serves as a synagogue and a tourist attraction

SHAVUOT Shavuot celebrates the completion of the 7-week Omer counting period between Passover and Shavuot. The Torah was given by G-d to the Jewish people on Mount Sinai on Shavuot more than 3,300 years ago. Every year on the holiday of Shavuot we renew our acceptance of G-d's gift, and G-d "re-gives" the Torah.
